

Answer Sheet: Mike

Multiple-choice questions

1. A
2. B
3. A
4. B
5. C

True/False questions

1. False
2. False
3. False
4. False
5. False

Short-answer questions

1. Tendons and ligaments are both strong tissues that help with movement.
2. The egg is pushed along by muscles in the oviduct wall.
3. They both have a growth spurt and experience emotional changes.
4. When the arm is straightened, both the biceps and triceps relax.
5. The fluid sac keeps the baby warm.

Fill-in-the-blank (Cloze) questions

1. cartilage
 2. tendons
 3. sperm
 4. development
 5. gestation
-